

LIVING IN LOVE & FAITH

Should the Church support same sex relationships?

Could they ever be called 'marriage'?

What if people disagreed on that: could they still be in a church together?

How has your attitude to human sexuality changed in the last twenty years, or has it stayed the same?

What has the Bible to say? How does that make sense of our understanding?

The Church of England has designed a course, called 'Living in Love and Faith'.

In the Kingston Deanery we are encouraging people to get together in groups, to discuss the material that is presented. The material is a mix of Bible studies, scientific input and life stories, of people attempting to live out their faith in their relationships; you will hear voices from all parts of the spectrum; trans, heterosexual, gay, lesbian, divorced, single & married.

The Living in Love & Faith course consists of 5 sessions taking place at St Mark's Church Surbiton KT6 4LS. The evening will start at 7:30pm on the following dates:

Week 1: Wednesday 15th September

Week 2: Wednesday 29th September

Week 3: Wednesday 6th October

Week 4: Wednesday 20th October

Week 5: Wednesday 3rd November

All that's required is a curious mind, and an ability to listen; it's almost certain that you will be in a group with someone whose understanding about human sexuality is different from yours. That's fine; indeed, that's what the course is for.

To get people talking about this, together.

To register for the Kingston Deanery Living in Love & Faith course please email Clare Chesterman at sasms@btinternet.com

On registration you will receive more information on the course content and location.
